FOREWORD

During the time period covered by this volume the baptisms, marriages, and burials were recorded by the parish churches. By an act dated February 10, 1855, copies were to be made and returned to the Secretary's office of all registers kept by the parishes and for which no duplicate had previously been returned. This consisted of copies of surviving registers for the years 1637-1848. The copied parochial registers have since been placed in the Barbados Department of Archives and it is from these copies that the data herein is presented.

Registers of baptisms, marriages, and burials were presumably kept from the founding of each parish church, but the surviving records are by no means complete, nor were they complete when the Central Registry was created. Baptism entries in St. George Parish begin in 1801, in St. Andrew Parish in 1825, and in St. John Parish in 1805. These fall outside the time period covered by this volume and therefore are not included.

The baptism entries in each parish are presented in the same sequence in which they appear in the registers, and all dates are given as they appear even though some were obviously either miscopied or entered out of chronological order. Inconsistencies relating to old and new calendars also remain as copied. The format has been standardized, giving month and day followed by complete data on the baptism. Miscellaneous notes entered in the registers by church officials are printed in the sequence in which they occur and are indexed in each parish introduction by page number as "Notes of Interest in the Registers" unless they were listed in the previously published Barbados Records, Marriages 1643-1800. Blanks (_____) indicate missing data, and parentheses ( ) show the compiler's comments or interpretations unless followed by (sic). Length of the blanks does not necessarily indicate the number of missing characters in a word or name. Unreliable transcriptions are labeled ( ? ) or followed by variant spellings which are indexed. Abbreviations used by the compiler are listed on page ix. Abbreviations appearing in the records are all followed by a colon. Incomplete surnames have been indexed if they contain the first letter, otherwise they follow the regular index. Many names appear more than once on a given page; also the index should be searched for abbreviated surnames since several occur in the various registers, e.g. Xtian:, Richds:, Wms:.

A significant problem with the index results from the frequent use of middle names and the prevalence of natural or illegitimate births. While the rectors often classified children as natural or illegitimate, they often did not. For example, in St. Michael we find on 31 May 1754 "Isaac son of Luke Corbin and Ann Hardingham." On the basis of this record and the general style or form employed by the rector for entering names, one would generally assume that the surname for this family is Hardingham. However, in Barbados Records, Marriages 1643-1800 we find that a Luke Corbin married Ann Hardingham in 1760. There are many examples of this type which have been recognized and others which have not, and therefore some surnames may be incorrectly indexed. For this reason I encourage you to interpret these records and look elsewhere for supporting evidence.

I have attempted to reproduce faithfully the records in this volume and have included data I believe to be in error. For example, I have retained the spelling of all names as they appear in the records except where I was familiar with the family and confident of the name. As a fellow genealogical researcher, I believe you are better qualified than I to interpret properly the errors that may have been introduced in the process of recopying the records of your family. The researcher should keep in mind that very few original records exist and that when they do exist most are in such a deteriorated condition as to make them almost useless. The source of this book, as was Hotten's data on Barbados, is recopied records.

I wish to thank my friend Peter F. Campbell, editor of The Journal of the Barbados Museum and Historical Society, for the Latin translations appearing in this volume.

ST MICHAEL PARISH

St Michael Parish Registers are in volumes RL1/1 through RL1/6. The baptisms, marriages, and burials are in chronological order in separate columns on each page with the first baptism entry made 3 Jan 1648. The number of entries per page varies and some pages contain no baptisms. Transition from the old to the new calendar is inconsistent; however, an examination of the dates for one or two years will probably resolve any doubts.

The rectors usually identified illegitimate children. Occasionally they did not, example: RL1/3, page 394, 31 May 1754, Isaac son of Luke Corbin and Ann Hardingham. Luke and Ann were married in 1760.

Dates given at the top of each page often are obviously wrong and some dates are illegible. There are also a few illegible entries, for example RL1/5, page 597, Jan 1-14 1794 and page 599, Feb 9-13 1794.

Several baptisms were entered in the marriage column. They have been included in this volume and noted.

The Rev. Thomas Wharton certified all pages from RL1/4 page 362 through page 487. His certification is noted only where he began and ended. Rector W. Garnett certified all pages from RL1/5 page 525 through RL1/6 page 149. His certification is noted only where he began and at the end of 1800.

Parish notes by the church officials are not repeated in this volume as they are listed in the previously published BARBADOS RECORDS, MARRIAGES 1643-1800.

CHRIST CHURCH PARISH

Christ Church Parish Register of Baptisms, RL1/17, lists the earliest baptism of all the parishes which is entered __ Mar 1637. There are baptism entries through 30 Dec 1834. The register is neatly written and easily read although numerous names were obviously copied in error. The new calendar is used throughout and is probably an innovation of the copier.

From page 110 - 113, compiler's notes (see "Hotten"), refer to John Camden Hotten's ORIGINAL LISTS OF PERSONS OF QUALITY..., originally published in London 1874. Hotten's transcription appears in parenthesis when it differs from or is blank in the Barbados Baptism Register.

The rectors usually identified illegitimate children, so if the parents are listed (for example, Peter Webster and Mary Lewis) and that marriage is not in the Marriage Register, the compiler assumes the father's name is Peter Webster Lewis and it is so indexed.

The baptisms appear to be fairly complete except for the following years: 1720 - entries in Dec only, 1725 - entries in Jan only, 24 Mar 1732 - 29 Mar 1735 no entries, 13 Nov 1748 - __ Oct 1751 no entries.

There are no memoranda made by officials of the church in this register.

ST JAMES PARISH

St James Parish Register RL1/46 encompasses baptisms, marriages, and burials in one volume. From page 806 - 811 is the "Register of Coloured People Commencing AD 1793" which is baptisms and burials. There are marriages entered to 1825 but none prior to 1800 and were, therefore, not included in BARBADOS RECORDS, MARRIAGES 1643 - 1800. The first baptism entry in RL1/46 is 22 May 1693. The writing is very small and difficult to read with the baptisms, marriages, and burials entered in chronological order in a single column and identified by marking an appropriate box at the right side of each page indicating which service was performed. This method of recording seems to be prone to errors in that numerous entries were not identified by the copier. Because of the possibility that some could be either a baptism or a burial, they will be listed in both "Baptisms" and "Burials" and noted. Also, many baptisms were listed in the marriage column which have all been included in this volume and noted.

The baptism entries are written beside a particular date but it is obvious some are only near the correct date since the date of baptism is sometimes given within the entry and does not always agree with the date listed to the side.

On page 107 a new format begins which is more easily read. The baptisms, burials, and marriages are listed in separate columns. The new format references baptisms only on odd numbered pages and some of these contain no baptisms.

The transition from the old to the new calendar is handled in a fairly orderly manner; however, a few inconsistencies do occur such as alternating between old and new calendar, failure to change the year at the proper place, and copying the seemingly wrong date.

The baptisms in this parish seem to be fairly complete although some years are sparse. There are, however, no baptisms recorded in the year 1702 and none from 20 Nov 1746 to 4 Apr 1751.

All "Notes of Interest" by the parish church officials are listed in BARBADOS RECORDS, MARRIAGES 1643 - 1800 and are not repeated in this volume.

ST JOSEPH PARISH

St Joseph Parish Register RL1/30 contains only baptisms from page 1, 20 July 1718 through page 250, 14 Nov 1835. The new calendar is used throughout. Some entries are very dim but most are easily read and all years to 1800 seem to be represented although some are sparse.

The rectors of this parish seemed to be fairly candid in identifying illegitimate children. Some doubts do arise, however, concerning legitimacy in the latter years when so many of the fathers had middle names and the marriage could not be proved in the Marriage Register.

There are no "Notes of Interest" entered by the parish church officials in this register.

ST LUCY PARISH

St Lucy Parish Register RL1/36 contains only baptisms with entries from 5 July 1747 - 31 Dec 1840. Entries are in a combination alphabetical - chronological order listed by the initial letter of the surname of the person being baptized with entries of common letters arranged in chronological order. On page 152 at the conclusion of the 'Y' names the 'T' names begin again for various years from 1779 past 1796 where entries of slaves, mulattos, and free negroes begin on page 153. From there through page 155 the dates are either blank or in erratic order and much of the data is missing. The grouping of baptisms by alphabet combined with the loss of dates associated with the deterioration of the old register make it difficult to determine how many entries may be missing. Most of the top 1/3 of page 10 is missing containing only dates and a few random names and a large portion of page 12 is missing. Pages 27 - 33 are missing the first line or two or parts of them.

Some of the 'Mc' names, such as Coy, McAnn, are not entered in the 'M' names but with the 'C' names. These have all been indexed as 'M' names.

The rectors usually entered an illegitimate or natural child under the initial letter of the mother's surname; if not, her surname was usually given as an alias. Occasionally the rector entered the baptism under the initial letter of the child's Christian name. For example, entered in the 'M' names is Mary daughter of Nathan Jones and Mary Welch. These children have all been indexed under the father's surname.

There are no "Notes of Interest" entered by the parish church officials in this register.

This register is now closed to the general public because of its deteriorated condition.

ST PETER PARISH

St Peter Parish Register RL1/39 combines baptisms, marriages, and burials in the same volume containing entries from 31 Aug 1779 to 27 Feb 1825. The baptisms are entered from 20 Sep 1779 on page 1 to 22 Nov 1800 on page 85. It is indexed and very easily read. The format has baptisms, marriages, and burials listed at the top of each page to page 20 where the format changes and the above entries are then listed across two pages. The baptism entries list the person's surname, Christian name, parents (if a child), date of birth, then date and year of baptism.

There seem to be few if any entries missing as all years are represented. There does seem to be a copier error though in listing the years 1797 and 1798.

There are no "Notes of Interest" entered by the parish church officials. The certification of each page by the church wardens, curates, and rectors is not noted as they all appear in BARBADOS RECORDS, MARRIAGES 1643 - 1800.

ST PHILIP PARISH

St Philip Parish Register RL1/22 contains only baptisms with entries from 23 Nov 1648 to 8 Jan 1835. The old style calendar is used until 1750 except occasionally when the copier reverts to the new calendar or just enters the new year at random. The script is poorly written and difficult to read. Numerous dates and names are missing, probably a result of the deteriorated condition of the original register before it was copied. There are no baptisms entered for the years 1658, 1659, 1669, 1670, 1671, 1706, 1707, 1708, 1748, 1750, 1751, 1752, 1754, and 1755. Because of the enormous loss of data, some names have been indexed from fragments with the hope that some researcher may find the needed clue, e.g. Richard Smith Sutton son of ____ and Mercy Gilbert and Rebecca Smith twin daughters of ____.

The rectors were fairly candid concerning illegitimate children; however, in the early years they sometimes did not identify them as illegitimate and entered only the father's name and the mother's maiden name. This may have caused some indexing errors. BARBADOS RECORDS, MARRIAGES 1643 - 1800 is sometimes helpful in determining the marital status.

During the 1678 - 1679 period the reference "OCH" refers to OMITTED CHAPTERS FROM HOTTEN, edited by James C. Brandow, published 1982. The reference, in parenthesis, is utilized when the parish register differs from spellings listed in "OCH".

Because of its deteriorated condition, this register is now closed to the general public.

ST THOMAS PARISH

St Thomas Parish Register RL 1/49 contains baptisms, marriages, and burials in one volume with entries from 8 Oct 1723 to 19 June 1825. The earliest baptism is entered 8 Sep 1728. The format is erratic, listing several pages of baptisms, several pages of marriages, several pages of burials, then beginning again. Occasionally there is only one page of each. The old style calendar is used, often incorrectly entered, to 1752. Because of this format the page numbering for baptisms may appear to omit numerous pages of data. There are, however, no entries for the years 1731, 1732, 1764, 1765, and 1766.

MORAVIAN BAPTISMS

Register RL1/73 contains Moravian and Roman Catholic baptisms, receptions, burials, & marriages. The Roman Catholic entries all begin after 1800. The Moravian marriage entries begin in 1829. The baptisms of the children of the missionaries are entered from 24 Mar 1774 to 17 Nov 1846 on pages 186 and 187.

Register RL1/85 is the 'Index to Wesleyan, Moravian, Roman Catholic, and Jewish Records' bound in two volumes, RL1/74 'A' and 'B'. These two volumes are closed to the general public as the only part remaining of them is the binding. The above mentioned Index was found after "BARBADOS RECORDS, MARRIAGES 1643 - 1800" was in print. The only four entries indexed prior to 1800 are listed below.

Jewish births and deaths are listed in Register RL1/75. Birth entries are from 25 July 1779 to 13 Mar 1884. The format lists the Jewish calendar year, the month and day, then name of person born and relationship (parent?). Some Gregorian calendar dates have been inserted which may or may not be correct. The entries are very difficult to read, especially the Jewish months which are often spelled wrong. Spelling corrections have been made for these months.

Because of the deteriorated condition of this Register it has been closed to the general public.
